LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:31-34

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

The days are surely coming, says the LORD, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt — a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband, says the LORD. But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, “Know the LORD,” for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the LORD; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

The word of the Lord.

R Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 51:12-13, 14-15, 18-19

Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and put a new and right spirit within me.
Do not cast me away from your presence,
and do not take your holy spirit from me. R

Restore to me the joy of your salvation,
and sustain in me a willing spirit.
Then I will teach transgressors your ways,
and sinners will return to you. R

For you have no delight in sacrifice;
if I were to give a burnt offering, you would not be pleased.
The sacrifice acceptable to God is a broken spirit;
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise. R

Gospel Acclamation

Mode VIII

Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

Matthew 16:18

You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church;
the gates of hell will not hold against it. R

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-23

V The Lord be with you.

R And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

R Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” And they said, “Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.” He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?” Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

And Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon Son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.”

Then Jesus sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah, the Christ. From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, “God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you.” But Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Offertory Motet

The Call

Five Mystical Songs, IV

Text: George Herbert (1593-1632)

Setting: Allen Percival

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life;
Such a Way, as gives us breath;
Such a Truth, as ends all strife;
Such a Life, as killeth death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength;
Such a Light, as shows a Feast;
Such a Feast, as mends in length;
Such a Strength, as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart;
Such a Joy, as none can move;
Such a Love, as none can part;
Such a Heart, as joys in love.

Communion Motet

Pod Twoją Obronę
Henryk Górecki (1933-2010)

*Pod Twoją obronę uciekamy się, święta Boża Rodzicielko;
naszymi prośbami racz nie gardzić w potrzebach naszych,
ale od wszelakich złych przygód racz nas zawsze wybawiać, Panno chwalebna i błogosławiona.*

*O Pani nasza, Orędowniczko nasza,
Pośredniczko nasza, Pocieszycielko nasza.
Z Synem swoim nas pojednaj, Synowi swojemu nas polecaj, swojemu Synowi nas oddawaj. Amen.*

*We fly to thy protection,
O holy Mother of God;
despise not our petitions in our necessities,
but deliver us always from all dangers,
O glorious and blessed Virgin.*

*O, Our Lady, our Advocate, our Mediator, our Comforter.
Reconcile us with your Son,
give us to your Son. Amen.*

N.B. Henryk Górecki dedicated this setting of the traditional Latin prayer Sub Tuum Praesidium to the Knights of Columbus in honor of the Order's 2006 establishment in Poland. Górecki was one of Poland's most revered contemporary composers of classical music and a member of Our Lady of Ludźmierz Council 14001.

RELICS AT THE MEMORIAL MASS

The Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that those whom the Church recognizes as saints “share in the living tradition of prayer by the example of their lives. ... Their intercession is their most exalted service in God’s plan. We can and should ask them to intercede for us and for the whole world” (2683). Relics remind us of the holiness of a saint and his or her cooperation in God’s work. At the same time, relics inspire us to ask for the prayers of that saint and to beg the grace of God to live the same kind of faith-filled life. Relics of the following saints and blesseds will be offered to the faithful for veneration during the Supreme Convention:

Saints and Blesseds of Canada

The Archdiocese of Québec has generously allowed the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council to include a reliquary of the saints and blesseds of Canada at today’s Memorial Mass. This reliquary contains relics of more than twenty men and women, whose lives and work left a lasting impact on Canada and North America. Included are relics of St. Jean de Brébeuf and the North American Martyrs, St. Marguerite Bourgeoys C.N.D., Marguerite d’Youville, S.G.M. and Marie of the Incarnation, O.S.U.

Saints et bienheureux du Canada, priez pour nous!
(Saints and blesseds of Canada, pray for us!)

Bl. Michael McGivney (1852-1890)

The founder of the Knights of Columbus, Father Michael J. McGivney was a central figure in the growth of Catholicism in America. His example of charity, evangelization and empowerment of the laity continues to bear fruit and guide Knights of Columbus around the world. In his Apostolic Letter that was read at the Mass for Beatification on Oct. 31, 2020, Pope Francis stated that Blessed Michael McGivney's "zeal for the proclamation of the Gospel and generous concern for the needs of his brothers and sisters made him an outstanding witness of Christian solidarity and fraternal assistance."

Mexican Martyrs (early 20th century)

Beginning in 1917, the Mexican government initiated several laws to suppress and outlaw the Catholic Church. Brutal practices included the desecration of churches, the torture and exile of Catholics and the martyrdom of many. Catholics organized as "Cristeros" and took as their rallying cry, "¡Viva Cristo Rey!" ("Long live Christ the King!"). Armed resistance met with a government crackdown and protracted hostilities. There were many priest victims and lay martyrs during the Cristero uprising, including members of the Knights of Columbus — six priest-saints and three blessed. They are considered patrons of religious liberty.

St. Rafael Guízar y Valencia (1878-1938)

Already called “The Saintly Bishop” during his life, Bishop Rafael Guízar y Valencia served the faithful of the Diocese of Xalapa devotedly during tumultuous years of persecution in Mexico. Driven from his diocese and into exile for more than nine years during his episcopal ministry, Guízar was steadfast in his advocacy on behalf of the Church. A Fourth Degree Knight, St. Rafael was particularly dedicated to the education of his fellow priests — establishing a clandestine seminary in Mexico City, which remained active for more than 15 years and educated more than 300 priests, against the orders of the anti-clerical Mexican government.

Bl. Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago (1918-1963)

The first Puerto Rican layperson to be beatified, “Blessed Charlie” was a catechist and member of the Knights of Columbus. Known for his devotion to the Church’s liturgy, Blessed Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago promoted “fully conscious, and active participation” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14) in the liturgy, prior to the Second Vatican Council.

St. Anne

Church tradition testifies that Sts. Anne and Joachim were the parents of Mary. Today, St. Anne is also recognized as the Patroness of the Province of Québec. Her Shrine, the Basilica of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré, is a renowned place of pilgrimage, where her favor is often sought and found.

St. Dominic (1170-1221)

Born in medieval Spain, St. Dominic founded the Order of Preachers, commonly called the Dominicans, to refute gnostic heresies and educate the laity through orthodox preaching. Unique at the time, Dominican friars lived itinerant lifestyles, in contrast to more prevalent enclosed monks. Dominic is remembered today for having established the Holy Rosary, bestowed on him by the Blessed Virgin Mary.

St. John Paul II (1920-2005)

Cardinal Karol Wojtyła, the Archbishop of Kraków, Poland, was elected Supreme Pontiff in October 1978. Throughout his ministry, he emphasized the dignity of human life and that the mystery of mankind finds ultimate meaning in Jesus Christ. He opened his pontificate with these memorable words: “Do not be afraid! Open wide the doors to Christ!” He had experienced firsthand the dehumanizing and destructive ideologies of Nazism and communism. His preaching, teaching and travels helped sow the spiritual seeds that brought down the Soviet Union with the liberation of Eastern Europe, including his beloved homeland. He affirmed and developed the Church’s teaching on human love, beginning with his catechesis known as the Theology of the Body; inaugurated World Youth Days and inspired young people around the world; and tirelessly called for a Culture of Life, which respects the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death.

St. Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997)

Canonized by Pope Francis on Sept. 4, 2016, Mother Teresa was known in her lifetime as a saint for the poor. While traveling in India to her annual retreat as a Sister of Loreto in 1946, she was inspired to found a new religious order of women, the Missionaries of Charity, dedicated to ministry to the “poorest of the poor.” She received both honors and attention “for the glory of God and in the name of the poor,” including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979 and the inaugural Knights of Columbus Gaudium et Spes Award in 1992.

St. Jean Marie Vianney (1786-1859)

Growing up during the anti-clerical French Revolution, St. Jean Marie Vianney was inspired by the brave suffering of priests to pursue his own vocation. Ordained in 1815, he lived a life of sacrifice as a parish priest in Ars, spending long hours in the confessional, opening a school and educating people in the Catholic faith. He imposed on himself severe penances for the souls of his people, and his reputation for holiness drew pilgrims to his small town. Known as the Curé d'Ars, he was canonized in 1925 and is the patron of parish priests. From 2018-2019, the Knights of Columbus conducted the nationwide "Heart of a Priest" pilgrimage of St. Jean Vianney's incorrupt heart, visiting 99 dioceses and every contiguous state in the U.S.

St. François de Laval (1623-1708)

Born in the Kingdom of France, Francis-Xavier de Montmorency-Laval served as Apostolic Vicar of New France and eventually as the first Bishop of Québec. Laval was instrumental in establishing a robust Catholic culture in the New World through his leadership in Québec. Among Laval's many accomplishments was his founding of the Séminaire de Québec. Bishop Laval was declared a saint by Pope Francis in 2014.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680)

The first Native American to be canonized, Kateri Tekakwitha was a member of the Mohawk people in upstate New York. She was baptized at the age of 19 and took a vow of chastity, pledging herself as a bride of Christ. Her decision was unpopular among her clan, forcing her to seek refuge near Montréal, in a Christian settlement where she died at age 24. She is a patron saint of the environment and of people in exile.

St. André Bessette, C.S.C. (1845-1937)

Renowned for his humility and gift of healing, Brother André was a lay brother of the Congregation of Holy Cross. Brother André's small chapel would eventually become Saint Joseph's Oratory of Mount Royal in Montréal, Québec.

Sts. Józef and Wiktoria Ulma with Seven Children (d. 1944)

Józef and Wiktoria Ulma were married on July 7, 1935. Together with their children, they lived their vibrant Catholic faith in Markowa, Poland. After 1942, when the Nazi police forcibly deported Jewish families from Markowa, the Catholic Ulmas gave aid to the Jewish refugees — hiding them in their home. In 1944, the Ulmas were betrayed. Józef, Wiktoria, their seven children (including their unborn baby), and the eight Jews hidden in their home were murdered by the Nazis. In 2022, Pope Francis declared the entire Ulma family martyrs, resulting in their beatification. They were the first family to be beatified together.

Completed in 1847, St. Patrick's Basilica was established to serve the booming English-speaking Irish immigrant community of Montreal. The Basilica is located just one block from Église du Gesù, the former site of Sainte-Marie College (Seminary), where Michael McGivney studied for the priesthood from 1872 to 1873. It is suspected that Michael McGivney would have attended social events and liturgies at St. Patrick's during his time in Montreal — feeling at home with his fellow Irishmen.
