Te Deum (Alternatim)

Chant Mode III

You are God, we praise you;
You are the Lord, we acclaim you;
You are the eternal Father.
All creation worships you.
To you all angels,
all the powers of heaven;
Cherubim and Seraphim,
sing in endless praise:
Holy, holy, holy,
Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth
are full of your glory.
The glorious company of Apostles praise you.
The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.
The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaims you:
Father, of majesty unbounded,
your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
You, Christ, are the king of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free,
you did not spurn the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death,
and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come, and be our judge.
Come then, Lord, and help your people, bought with the price of your own blood,
and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.
Save your people, Lord,
and bless your inheritance.
Govern and uphold them now and always.
Day by day we bless you.
We praise your name for ever.
Keep us today, Lord, from all sin.
Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
Lord, show us your love and mercy,
for we put our trust in you.
In you, Lord, is our hope,
and we shall never hope in vain.

Penitential Act

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Collect

O God, who in your providential design willed that your Church be built upon blessed Peter, whom you set over the other Apostles, look with favor, we pray, on Leo our Pope and grant that he, whom you have made Peter's successor, may be for your people a visible source and foundation of unity in faith and of communion.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

R Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Ezekiel 34: 11-16

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the Lord GOD: I myself will look after and tend my sheep. As a shepherd tends his flock when he finds himself among his scattered sheep, so will I tend my sheep. I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I will lead them out from among the peoples and gather them from the foreign lands; I will bring them back to their own country and pasture them upon the mountains of Israel in the land's ravines and all its inhabited places. In good pastures will I pasture them, and on the mountain heights of Israel shall be their grazing ground. There they shall lie down on good grazing ground, and in rich pastures shall they be pastured on the mountains of Israel. I myself will pasture my sheep; I myself will give them rest, says the Lord GOD. The lost I will seek out, the strayed I will bring back, the injured I will bind up, the sick I will heal, but the sleek and the strong I will destroy, shepherding them rightly.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 96:1-2a, 2b-3, 7-8a, 10

Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD; bless his name. R

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds. R

Give to the LORD, you families of nations, give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name! R

Say among the nations: The LORD is king.
He has made the world firm, not to be moved;
he governs the peoples with equity. R

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:11-16

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters: Christ gave some as Apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ, so that we may no longer be infants, tossed by waves and swept along by every wind of teaching arising from human trickery, from their cunning in the interests of deceitful scheming. Rather, living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into him who is the head, Christ, from whom the whole Body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, with the proper functioning of each part, brings about the Body's growth and builds itself up in love.

The word of the Lord.

R/ Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 17:11b, 17-23

V The Lord be with you.

R And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to John R Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus raised his eyes toward heaven and prayed, saying: "Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.

"I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me. And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me."

Communion Antiphon

John 21: 15, 17

Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.

Guidelines for the Reception of Communion

For Catholics: As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians: We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

For those not receiving Holy Communion: All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians: We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED MICHAEL McGIVNEY

All: God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor.

Through the example of his life and virtue,
may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church.

Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast.

We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will.

Through his intercession,
grant the favor I now present (here make your request).

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God Beyond All Praising

O— God be-yond all prais-ing, We wor-ship you to-day
The flow'r of earth-ly splen-dor in time must sure-ly die,
Then hear, O gra-cious Sav-ior, Ac-cept the love we bring,

And sing the love a-maz-ing That songs can-not re-pay;
its frag-ile bloom sur-ren-der to you, the Lord most high;
That we who know your fa-vor May serve you as our king;
The hea-vens stand in won-der, While earth your glo-ry sings;

For— we can on-ly won-der At— ev-'ry gift you send, though small in mor-tal stat-ure to heav-en's gar-den grown:

We'll tri-umph through our sor-rows And rise to bless you still:
All glo-ry, praise and ho-nor Be yours, O sov-reign Lord;

We lift our hearts be-fore you And wait up-on your word, for— Christ the man from heav-en from death has set us free.
To— mar-vel at your beau-ty And glo-ry in your ways,
O— God, the Ho-ly Spi-rit, Who lives with-in our soul,

FATHER MICHAEL J. McGIVNEY MEMORIAL CHALICE

In 1990, to commemorate the centennial of Father Michael J. McGivney's death, the Knights of Columbus Board of Directors commissioned a memorial chalice. The chalice was crafted by Giansanti Artistic Jewelers, a prestigious jewelry concern in Rome, Italy. The 18-karat, solid-gold chalice features a node in the form of a globe that depicts the Old and New Worlds, signifying that Christopher Columbus brought the faith from Europe on his voyage of discovery and evangelization in 1492. A medallion at the base of the chalice bears the likeness of Father McGivney.

First used at the Memorial Mass during the 108th Supreme Convention in San Antonio, Texas, the McGivney Chalice is used at major Orderwide liturgies. Most notably, the McGivney Chalice was used by St. John Paul II during the Papal Mass co-sponsored by the Order and the Diocese of Brooklyn in 1995, and at the Beatification of Father McGivney in 2020.

Under the base of the chalice is the emblem of the Order and the inscription:

The Knights of Columbus commissioned this chalice to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the death of its founder, Father Michael J. McGivney, August 14, 1990.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Knights of Columbus is grateful to His Eminence Robert Cardinal McElroy, Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio and to all those who contributed to the organization of this liturgy, particularly Monsignor Walter R. Rossi, Monsignor Vito A. Buonanno, Father Michael D. Weston, Father Ismael N. Ayala, and Dr. Peter J. Latona; as well as Nicolle Wuchek of the Supreme Council staff.
