

Quinceañera Support

Overview

The Quinceañera Support program encourages councils to support the quinceañera celebrations of the families in their parish. A quinceañera, common in Hispanic cultures, celebrates a 15-year-old young woman's passage from childhood to adulthood, thanks God for the blessing of her life and asks for His blessing going forward. Councils can serve as a part of this important milestone by providing resources, manpower and general support for the celebration and related prayer services or thanksgiving Mass. Knights can carry out their duties to form families and support their parishes by providing assistance with this formative aspect of young women's spiritual lives, especially by offering Our Lady as a role model.

Featured Program Requirements

For two program credits toward the Columbian Award – provide support for a quinceañera celebration in your parish. Report activity using the Fraternal Programs Report Form (#10784).

Action Steps

1. Working with your pastor, develop a plan to serve the young women and their families who are interested in a quinceañera celebration. You can share the Quinceañera Support Brochure (#11916) with your pastor and council to give them an idea of what the program entails.
2. Consider the following ways to provide support:
 - Provide prayer cards to be used during the celebration, prayer service, Mass or daily, such as the Young Woman's Prayer (#11917) and Quinceañera Prayer of Thanksgiving (#11918).
 - Suggest that the pastor give special blessings for quinceañeras, such as the Order of Blessings on the Fifteenth Birthday which can be found in the Book of Blessings. Dioceses may also have other liturgical resources and guidelines.
 - Donate small gifts, such as rosaries, flowers, medals, or other religious items.
 - Help with preparations for the celebration or prayer service, such as food preparation, decorations, music and setup and breakdown of the event.
 - Support any formation, preparation, or catechetical programs related to quinceañeras offered by the parish or diocese.
 - Distribute formation resources (found on Supplies Online) such as:
 - The Woman Who Changed the Face of a Hemisphere (#4752)
 - The Magnificat (#4753)
 - Mary, The Mother of God booklet (#324)
