

Young Woman's Prayer

Almighty God, I thank you for the gift of my life and for all the blessings you have bestowed upon me. I ask you to continue to bless me each day.

Please grant me an abundance of wisdom and guide me in all my decisions so that everything I do may be pleasing to you, my heavenly Father.

Help me to grow in virtue and to pursue a life of holiness, ever striving after the goal of Heaven and following in the footsteps of your saints, especially the most holy Virgin Mary.

I ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
