Collect

God of eternal mercy,
who set your priest Blessed Michael in the Church to comfort the suffering and the weary, the lonely and the oppressed
with works of charity and a gentle heart, grant that, through his intercession,
we too may become vessels of mercy in our day
and so enter into our heavenly inheritance.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

R Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians

Brothers and sisters, I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.

And he gave some as Apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature to manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

The word of the Lord.

R Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 110:1, 2, 3, 4
Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

The LORD said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand till I make your enemies your footstool.” R

The scepter of your power the LORD will stretch forth from Zion:
“Rule in the midst of your enemies.” R

“Yours is princely power in the day of your birth, in holy splendor;
before the daystar, like the dew, I have begotten you.” R

The LORD has sworn, and he will not repent:
“You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.” R

Gospel Acclamation

Mode VIII
Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

Luke 4:18

The Lord sent me to bring glad tidings to the poor and to proclaim liberty to captives. R

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12a

V The Lord be with you.

R And with your spirit.

✠ A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

R Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

R Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Offertory Motet

The Call

Five Mystical Songs, IV

Text: George Herbert (1593-1632)

Setting: Allen Percival

Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life;
Such a Way, as gives us breath;
Such a Truth, as ends all strife;
Such a Life, as killeth death.

Come, my Light, my Feast, my Strength;
Such a Light, as shows a Feast;
Such a Feast, as mends in length;
Such a Strength, as makes his guest.

Come, my Joy, my Love, my Heart;
Such a Joy, as none can move;
Such a Love, as none can part;
Such a Heart, as joys in love.

Offertory Hymn

By All Your Saints Still Striving

Text: Based on Horatio Nelson (1823-1913)

Verse 2 Peter J. Latona (b.1968)

1. By all your saints still striv - ing, For all your saints at rest,
2. Sing praise to Bles - sed Mi - chael, Whose char - i - ty un - bound
3. Then let us praise the Fa - ther And wor - ship God the Son

Your ho - ly Name, O Je - sus, For ev - er - more be blessed.
Sus - tained the poor and need - y, By which God's love is found
And sing to God the Spir - it, E - ter - nal Three in One,

You rose, our King vic - to - rious, That they might wear the crown
May we with Bles - sed Mi - chael de - fend the Church from harm
Till all the ran - somed num - ber Who stand be - fore the throne,

And ev - er shine in splen - dor Re - flect - ed from your throne.
And serve her through the a - ges; her faith - ful strong right arm.
A - scribe all pow'r and glo - ry And praise to God a - lone.

Offertory

V Pray, brethren,
that my sacrifice and yours
may be acceptable to God,
the almighty Father.

R May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands
for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Prayer Over the Offerings

Preface

V The Lord be with you.

R And with your spirit.

V Lift up your hearts.

R We lift them up to the Lord.

V Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

R It is right and just.

Sanctus

Deutsche Messe
Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord God of hosts. Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord God of hosts. Heav - en and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Eucharistic Prayer

Mysterium Fidei

Deutsche Messe
Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

Save us, Sav - ior of the world, Sav - ior of the world, for by your cross and re - sur - rec - tion
you have set us free, you have set us free.

Amen

Deutsche Messe
Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

A - men, a - men, a - men, a - men, a - men.

COMMUNION RITE

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Doxology

For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours
now and for ever.

Sign of Peace

V The peace of the Lord be with you always.
R And with your spirit.

Agnus Dei

Deutsche Messe

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

1. 2.
O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.

3.
O Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

Ecce Agnus Dei

V Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

R Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Communion Antiphon

Luke 12:42

This is the steward, faithful and prudent, whom the Lord set over his household,
to give them their allowance of food at the proper time.

Communion

O esca viatorum
Heinrich Isaac (c.1450-1517)

I Received the Living God

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one flat) and 3/4 time. The first staff is for the antiphon, and the second is for the hymn. Both staves have a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are written below the notes.

I re-ceived the liv-ing God, and my heart is full of joy.

I re-ceived the liv-ing God, and my heart is full of joy.

Guidelines for the Reception of Communion

For Catholics: As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For our fellow Christians: We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (Jn 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

For those not receiving Holy Communion: All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

For non-Christians: We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 1996

Communion Motet

Give Us the Wings of Faith
James Whitbourn (1963–2024)

Give us the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The Saints above, how great their joys,
How bright their glories be.

We ask them, whence their vict'ry came
They, with one united breath
Ascribe the conquest to the Lamb
Their triumph to his Death.

They marked the footsteps that he trod,
His zeal inspired their breast;
And, foll'wing their incarnate God
They reached the promised rest.

Communion Meditation

Non nobis, Domine
William Byrd (1540–1623)

Non nobis, Domine, non nobis, sed nomini tuo da gloriam. Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto thy name give the glory.

Prayer After Communion

PRAYER FOR THE CANONIZATION OF BLESSED MICHAEL McGIVNEY

All: God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan,
you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor.

Through the example of his life and virtue,
may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church.

Let the inspiration of your servant
prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast.

We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will.

Through his intercession,
grant the favor I now present (here make your request).

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CONCLUDING RITE

Pontifical Blessing

V The Lord be with you.

R And with your spirit.

V Blessed be the name of the Lord.

R Now and for ever.

V Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R Who made heaven and earth.

V May almighty God bless you,

✠ the Father, ✠ and the Son,

✠ and the Holy Spirit.

R Amen.

Dismissal

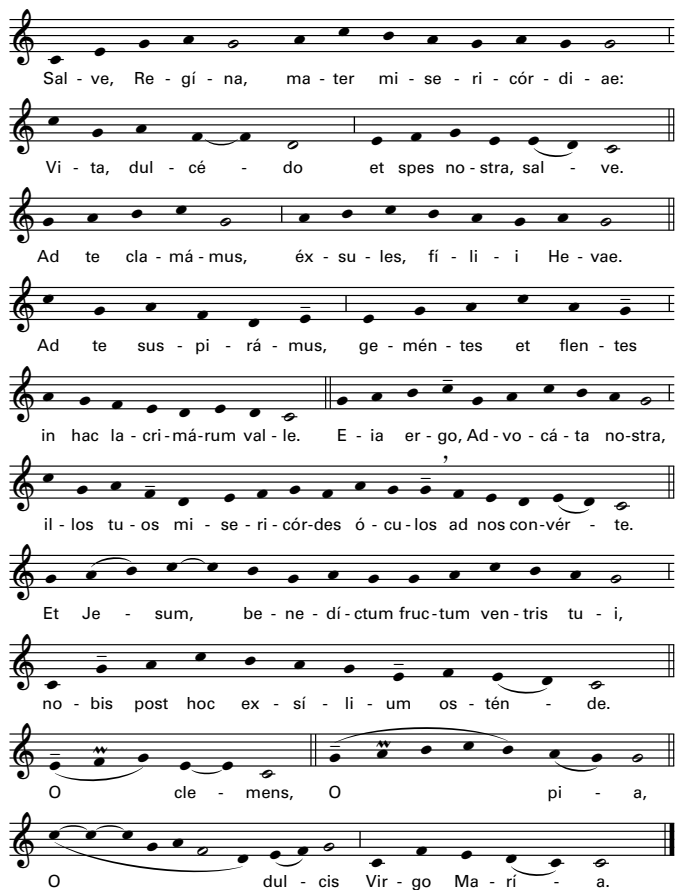

V Go forth, the Mass is ended.

R Thanks be to God.

RELICS AT THE MEMORIAL MASS

Bl. Michael McGivney (1852-1890)

The founder of the Knights of Columbus, Father Michael J. McGivney was a central figure in the growth of Catholicism in America. His example of charity, evangelization and empowerment of the laity continues to bear fruit and guide Knights of Columbus around the world. In his Apostolic Letter that was read at the Mass for Beatification on Oct. 31, 2020, Pope Francis stated that Blessed Michael McGivney’s “zeal for the proclamation of the Gospel and generous concern for the needs of his brothers and sisters made him an outstanding witness of Christian solidarity and fraternal assistance.”

Mexican Martyrs (early 20th century)

Beginning in 1917, the Mexican government initiated several laws to suppress and outlaw the Catholic Church. Brutal practices included the desecration of churches, the torture and exile of Catholics and the martyrdom of many. Catholics organized as “Cristeros” and took as their rallying cry, “¡Viva Cristo Rey!” (“Long live Christ the King!”). Armed resistance met with a government crackdown and protracted hostilities. There were many priest victims and lay martyrs during the Cristero uprising, including members of the Knights of Columbus — six priest-saints and three blessed. They are considered patrons of religious liberty.

St. Rafael Guízar y Valencia (1878-1938)

Already called “The Saintly Bishop” during his life, Bishop Rafael Guízar y Valencia served the faithful of the Diocese Xalapa devotedly during tumultuous years of persecution in Mexico. Driven from his diocese and into exile for more than nine years during his episcopal ministry, Guízar was steadfast in his advocacy on behalf of the Church. A Fourth Degree Knight, St. Rafael was particularly dedicated to the education of his fellow priests — establishing a clandestine seminary in Mexico City, which remained active for more than 15 years and educated more than 300 priests, against the orders of the anti-clerical Mexican government.

Bl. Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago (1918-1963)

The first Puerto Rican layperson to be beatified, “Blessed Charlie” was a catechist and member of the Knights of Columbus. Known for his devotion to the Church’s liturgy, Blessed Carlos Manuel Rodríguez Santiago promoted “fully conscious, and active participation” (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 14) in the liturgy, prior to the Second Vatican Council.

St. Dominic (1170-1221)

Born in medieval Spain, St. Dominic founded the Order of Preachers, commonly called the Dominicans, to refute gnostic heresies and educate the laity through orthodox preaching. Unique at the time, Dominican friars lived itinerant lifestyles, in contrast to more prevalent enclosed monks. Dominic is remembered today for having established the Holy Rosary, bestowed on him by the Blessed Virgin Mary.

St. Jean Marie Vianney (1786-1859)

Growing up during the anti-clerical French Revolution, St. Jean Marie Vianney was inspired by the brave suffering of priests to pursue his own vocation. Ordained in 1815, he lived a life of sacrifice as a parish priest in Ars, spending long hours in the confessional, opening a school and educating people in the Catholic faith. He imposed on himself severe penances for the souls of his people, and his reputation for holiness drew pilgrims to his small town. Known as the Curé d'Ars, he was canonized in 1925 and is the patron of parish priests. From 2018-2019, the Knights of Columbus conducted the nationwide "Heart of a Priest" pilgrimage of St. Jean Vianney's incorrupt heart, visiting 99 dioceses and every contiguous state in the U.S.

St. John Paul II (1920-2005)

Cardinal Karol Wojtyła, the Archbishop of Kraków, Poland, was elected Supreme Pontiff in October 1978. Throughout his ministry, he emphasized the dignity of human life and that the mystery of mankind finds ultimate meaning in Jesus Christ. He opened his pontificate with these memorable words: “Do not be afraid! Open wide the doors to Christ!” He had experienced firsthand the dehumanizing and destructive ideologies of Nazism and communism. His preaching, teaching and travels helped sow the spiritual seeds that brought down the Soviet Union with the liberation of Eastern Europe, including his beloved homeland. He affirmed and developed the Church’s teaching on human love, beginning with his catechesis known as the Theology of the Body; inaugurated World Youth Days and inspired young people around the world; and tirelessly called for a Culture of Life, which respects the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death.

St. Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997)

Canonized by Pope Francis on Sept. 4, 2016, Mother Teresa was known in her lifetime as a saint for the poor. While traveling in India to her annual retreat as a Sister of Loreto in 1946, she was inspired to found a new religious order of women, the Missionaries of Charity, dedicated to ministry to the “poorest of the poor.” She received both honors and attention “for the glory of God and in the name of the poor,” including the Nobel Peace Prize in 1979 and the inaugural Knights of Columbus Gaudium et Spes Award in 1992.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha (1656-1680)

The first Native American to be canonized, Kateri Tekakwitha was a member of the Mohawk people in upstate New York. She was baptized at the age of 19 and took a vow of chastity, pledging herself as a bride of Christ. Her decision was unpopular among her clan, forcing her to seek refuge near Montréal, in a Christian settlement where she died at age 24. She is a patron saint of the environment and of people in exile.

St. André Bessette, C.S.C. (1845-1937)

Renowned for his humility and gift of healing, Brother André was a lay brother of the Congregation of Holy Cross. Brother André's small chapel would eventually become Saint Joseph's Oratory of Mount Royal in Montréal, Québec.

Sts. Józef and Wiktoria Ulma with Seven Children (d. 1944)

Józef and Wiktoria Ulma were married on July 7, 1935. Together with their children, they lived their vibrant Catholic faith in Markowa, Poland. After 1942, when the Nazi police forcibly deported Jewish families from Markowa, the Catholic Ulmas gave aid to the Jewish refugees — hiding them in their home. In 1944, the Ulmas were betrayed. Józef, Wiktoria, their seven children (including their unborn baby), and the eight Jews hidden in their home were murdered by the Nazis. In 2022, Pope Francis declared the entire Ulma family martyrs, resulting in their beatification. They were the first family to be beatified together.

Bl. Carlo Acutis (1991-2006)

Blessed Carlo Acutis dedicated himself to living and sharing the faith at a young age. He was a catechist, served meals to the poor, and developed computer programs that helped other children with academic difficulties. He was devoted to the Eucharist and helped create a website featuring Eucharistic miracles from around the world for the purpose of evangelization. He died of leukemia at age 15. Blessed Carlo Acutis is the first saint of the Millennial generation.
